Cinderella Ky Craft

K.Y. Craft's illustrations are magical (Cinderella's pumpkin coach is shown flying through the air on the way to the Ball) and exquisite. The word "illustrations" does not begin to do Craft justice. These are actually detailed paintings; many of which cover two full pages. This "Cinderella" is not a children's book.

Cinderella - KY Craft. March 7, 2015 | Mama Reads. If I could only have one version of Cinderella, this one is it. The pages are beautiful, stunning even, and look appropriate to the Victorian era (but don't hold me to that, I am not versed in art history or fashion whatsoever) Amazing illustrations are not enough though, the story has to ...

KY Craft has a wonderful Cinderella which is probably why I am being so hard on this version. Nicoletta Ceccoli, the illustrator, has a number of kids books (We have read and loved "Oscar the Mooncats"), so I promise to find a worthy one by this talented artist and review it I am going to have to pass on this version though.
